

AUTHOR GUIDELINES

STRUCTURE OF THE ARTICLE

Summaries in English (250 words) languages.

Keywords (up to 5 keywords in alphabetical order should follow the summary)

Body of the article:

- Background (research context and relevance, research issue, aim, conceptual framework or literature review);
- Methodology with Sample, Methods, Tool(s), Ethics;
- Findings (up to 5 tables and / or figures may be included);
- Discussion (interpretation of findings);
- Limitations;
- Impact;
- Conclusions;
- References.

Manuscript Style and Content. The manuscript (including all charts, figures and tables) must be double spaced. Pages must be numbered consecutively. We prefer Microsoft Word and Times New Roman.

A title page must be presented a separate page. Please do not include it in the manuscript file. In the title page the following information should be included: name and surname, job title, department and institution of each author; and the name, address, phone, and e-mail of the corresponding author.

The title must include no more than 10 words.

Manuscripts must be in English.

The manuscript should be between 5.500 and 6.500 words in length.

Structured under appropriate headings, the summary should accompany the manuscript on a separate page. It should normally include the article's aim, background and conclusion. Summaries for reports of empirical studies should also include the methods and findings.

Articles involving statistical methods should state the source of research subjects, selection methods, sample size, response rate and main results with confidence intervals and actual P values.

References. APA 6th ed. style must be used (https://library.uws.edu.au/uws_library/sites/default/files/cite_APA.pdf).

Units, Spelling and Measurement. System, International (SI) should be used. Spelling should conform to The Concise Oxford Dictionary.

Illustrations. Illustrations must be professionally prepared, submitted in a form suitable for reproduction, and supplied on separate pages. The first 100 characters of any caption should describe key aspects of the illustration. The captions should be typed on a separate page at the end of the manuscript rather than in the text or under the illustrations.

Illustrations should be provided to either single (83 mm) or double column (175 mm) width. Lettering should be sans serif and of 2 – 3 mm. height. Lines should be at least 0,33 mm wide in final size and symbols should be 2 – 3 mm across.

All illustrations should be referred to in the text as figures using Arabic numerals, e.g. Fig. 1, etc. in order of appearance.

Tables. Charts, figures and tables must be on separate pages. Tables containing only essential data should be double – spaced and numbered separately e.g. Table 1 and a caption for each should be supplied. Only horizontal lines should be used, one above and one below the column headings and one at the table foot. All abbreviations must be defined in a footnote.

Copyright. Copyright must be assigned to Klaipeda College. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article in any medium, including reprints, photographic reproductions. Microfilm, electronic reproductions or any other reproduction of a similar nature and translations. If the paper is part of a larger study and you or other authors, have written additional papers that have been published / submitted for publication using the study as the basis for the article, you must contact the Editor with details to ensure there is no breach of copyright. Copyright assignment is a condition of publication and papers will not be passed to the publisher for production unless copyright has been assigned. To assist authors an appropriate copyright assignment form will be supplied by the editorial office.
