

Table of contents

Tomasz Drewniak, Bogusław Szuba The cosmos, architecture and ethos. Introduction I	7
Wojciech Kosiński Will beauty save the world? Philosophy and creation	21
Peter Schmid (Prakash), Gabriela Pal-Schmid The beauty of shelter or architecture and beauty. Considerations on beautiful architecture based on practice, study and experience	36
Bogusław Szuba Beauty and harmony as principles for developing the world around us	47
Piotr Stachurski The architectural order as the canon of beauty (Based on an analysis of De architectura libri decem by Vitruvius)	69
Marco Lucchini The rule of the game: beauty as dualism between the core and the raiment	88
Anna Kossak-Jagodzińska The canons of beauty in architecture and contemporary sources of inspiration	99
Tomasz Drewniak Beauty as coming into presence and affirmation of Being-toward-death: the bridge – the temple – the cottage	116
Anna Nowak, Wiesław Rokicki Bionic standards in the search of beauty in architecture and urbanism	141
Tomasz Wagner Anti-aestheticism in architecture. Selected issues	154
Andrzej Jaworski Redefining the concept of beauty in the context of innovative pursuits in art at the turn of the 20th century	174
Sebastian Pniak Pedestrian zones as spaces for aesthetic experience associated with the perception of beauty in architecture	197

Krystyna Strumiłło
The canon of beauty in concrete architecture	210
Beata Majerska-Pałubicka
The aesthetic values of sustainable architecture	220